The Age of Reason

How has the world changed for women? Six inspiring octogenarians look back Six programmes

(4) Amina Cachalia

In some parts of the globe, the position of women is unrecognisable compared to 80 years ago, in others, women lead lives virtually unchanged since the days of their grandmothers.

Amina Cachalia has dedicated her life to fighting for equality. She was born into racially divided South Africa in 1930 and became politically active as a teenager fighting for an end to racial discrimination. She also took up the cause of women - fighting for their economic independence.

Now aged 82, Amina Cachalia speaks to Lerato Mbele about her long life of campaigning work in South Africa (BBC)
