9:00 Voyager Golden Record

V-Ger

When NASA realized that the Voyager space probes being launched in 1977 would eventually travel beyond the edge of our solar system, they decided to include some kind of message to any intelligent aliens who might one day find them. A committee headed by astronomer Carl Sagan made the selection which includes a wide variety of music, spoken greetings in 55 different languages (including some that are very obscure or long extinct) and samples of earth's nature sounds. They're on gold-plated copper discs, engraved much like a vinyl record album and attached to the outside of the spacecraft.

As the Voyager 1 and 2 probes are now 19 billion km away and still going strong,

Steve Danby decided to look at the Voyager Golden Records and the message they're taking from planet Earth (RNZ)

Song: Mirror of the World

Thirteen programmes that explore classic song, poetry set to music, as a prism for understanding culture and history Presented by Thomas Hampson
(6) Forging a National Consciousness Beginning in 1848, the Year of Revolution, this programme explores the role of song as a unifying cultural force in the face of vital political struggles. With the folksongs of their homelands ringing in their ears, composers from Brahms to Duparc, from Mahler to Mussorgsky, took up the torch of nationalism at a moment when worlds were colliding (WFMT)
