11:06 Elvis at Stax

In 1973, Elvis Presley had every right to be excited for the future. He had signed a new recording contract, formed his own publishing company and finally controlled his business. With a pile of new songs, Elvis decided to record at the legendary Stax Studios in Memphis - home to some of the brightest soul artists of the time. You'll hear highlights from those sessions and talk with the people who were in the room
