11:06 The Real Story of the Buena Vista Social Club

Most people think the Buena Vista musicians were impoverished and forgotten before the CD came out, or that the Castro government had repressed their music. But it wasn't true. Most of the musicians were successful in Cuba, playing the same kind of music that later made them worldwide hits. Producer and host Reese Erlich spent years interviewing nearly all the original Buena Vista musicians and many of their sidemen. In this documentary, he separates fact from fiction (PRX)
