12:11 Spectrum: Armageddon

Neil Silverwood is a man with a dream. This keen caver is searching for the link between the West Coast's Fox River cave systems and an ominously-named nearby cave called Armageddon, to create one of the longest subterranean networks in New Zealand. Recently Neil and a team of cavers travelled to Armageddon to have a go. Over four long, days, they struggled through tight passages, under low-hanging rock and freezing cave streams to try to find the connection. And they took an RNZ recording device with them. Spectrum goes underground to try to find a way in the darkness.
