The Real Story: What is Fuelling War in Yemen?

The UN calls Yemen 'the world's worst humanitarian crisis'. It says more than three-fourths of the population - over 22 million people - are in need of humanitarian assistance. Yemenis face hunger, disease, and the terror of a war which has pitted Iran-backed Houthi rebels against a military coalition led by Saudi Arabia. With no end in sight, after 3-years of that Saudi campaign, what are the Saudi aims in Yemen and why are Yemeni civilians continuing to suffer so much? Carrie Gracie and a panel of expert guests bring clarity to one of the world's most complex wars. (BBC)

Faith in Freedom: 3. Shahbaz Taseer

Shahbaz Taseer was a hostage for more than four and a half years. Kidnapped at gunpoint by one of Pakistan's most extreme terrorist groups, the Islamic Movement of Uzbekistan, he was then captured during fighting by the Afghan Taliban. His abduction took place only seven months after his father, Salman Taseer, the Governor of Pakistan, was assassinated by his own bodyguard for defending the rights of a Christian woman sentenced to death for blasphemy. Shahbaz shares his experiences with another former hostage John McCarthy, talking about how their faith sustained them in their darkest hours of captivity, including physical and psychological torture. (BBC)
